Uncle Sam's Shortage.

The deficit in the National Treasu r the present fiscal year—from July 1s to date—is $13,905,275 55.

In 1894, under the McKiniev Tariff exported 16,536,991 barrels of flour 1895, under the Gorman Free-trade Tariff, we imported only 14,942,647 bar-rels—a loss of the trifle of 1,594,344 bar-rels. Dear, bless us! How the American farmers are "capturing the markets of the world" under the delightful system of Democratic Free rade!

THE LEDGER isn't given to flying the of the late so-called Southern Confederacy; but today it throws to the breeze the best sample it has, in respect to Hon. John W. Headley, a gallant ex-Confederate, who honors himself and American manhood by his letter of welcome to the Grand Army of the Repub-lic, printed elsewhere in this paper.

Ours of the higher questions of politice will be under discussed in 8 phragment, Mans., this week. It is gratifying to see that the subject of fivestry, life and 2 good roads, is a stracting increased attention, though not se yet pointed to with prids. The American Forestry Association at its present National gathering will sak legislators for action. Our great forests are vanishing. Twenty years ago they covered 700,000,000 acres, and today their area is but $370,000.000. and today their area is but 375,000,000 acres. They are slashed, burned, wasted and swept away without a thought of future penalties, some of which may be not only serious, but calamitous. In forty years Michigan has lost $40,000,-000 by forest fires. Indiana has been stripped of 3,500,000 acres of forest in thirty years. The Government estimate of the dally average cutting of timber in the United States 1s 27,500 acres The Forestry Association will ask Conrees at the coming session to pass laws or the protection of our forests from fire and from wasteful cutting. The Government has already made a small beginning by setting aside for National use seventeen forest preserves containing 17,500,000 acres. But a comprehensive forestry law is needed, and, in fact, imperatively demanded by every consideration of National prosperity. The business capacity of the Fifty-fourth Congress will be tested by this Issue.

is Will Be Done to Protect the Larg immber of American Citizens on the Island—The Grant Administration Threatened the Same in 1875.

Theresteed the flower in 1876.

Criticato, Sept. 13.—4 special to an evening paper from Washington says there is no longer say doubt that the United States will within a short period give formal and official aid to the Cuban revolutionists. It may not be a recognition of belligerency, but the recognition of belligerency, but the flowers of the second time believes that the Gret. It is now learned on unquestioned suthority that the United States for the second time believes that the opportune occasion has arrived when this povernment should interfere in matino of its own citizens and listerest of rivilization. Cuba is being rapidly transformed into a colony of Americans by reason of a rather peculiar circumstance. The only reason which has theretofore prevented this government incoking to the better protection of its citizens, has been a disinclination to interfere forchly in affairs of a friendly foreign power. It has even been held that no precedent has been discovered in the case of Spain herself, and coursing day procedent has been discovered in the case of Spain herself, and occurring during a period of revolution.

ered in the case of Spain herself, and occurring during a period of revolution. It is said that the administration will, if nocessary, avail licelf of this precedent as a form of procedure if all other alternatives fall.

It is shown by the archives of the state department that on November 5, 1875, President Grant having become exaperated beyond endurance, directed Hamilton Flah, then secretary of state, to prepare a complete and thorough statement of the grievances held by the United States against terrention by the former in the affairs of the latter.

In the course of this letter Secretary Fish said that he was directed by President Grant to review exhaustively all the matters of fact relating to the embargoed estates of American citizens: that proposed proper redress had long been delayed; that the government of the state of the state
